32 CASE NO. 2:25-CV-01884-TLN-SCR

JOINT STIPULATION TO LIFT THE STAY AND PROPOSED BRIEFING SCHEDULE

On July 3, 2025, Petitioner filed a habeas petition and motion for temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction challenging as unconstitutional his re-detention by immigration officials on May 27, 2025. ECF No. 1. On July 14, 2025, after briefing by Respondents and argument by the parties, the Court granted a preliminary injunction and ordered Petitioner's immediate release from immigration custody. ECF No. 14 at 10. The Court determined that Petitioner had established a likelihood of success on the merits that he had a liberty interest and that due process required Petitioner receive a hearing to determine whether detention is warranted. Id. at 8. The Court further ordered that prior to any redetention of Petitioner, Petitioner is entitled to notice of the reasons for the revocation of his release and a hearing before an immigration judge to determine whether detention is warranted. Id. At that hearing, the government would bear the burden to justify Petitioner's re-detention by clear and convincing evidence. Id.

On August 14, 2025, the Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) filed a motion for a bond hearing before the Adelanto Immigration Court. In light of that motion, on August 22, 2025, the parties jointly stipulated to continue proceedings before this Court for 60 days. See ECF No. 19, 20 (granting stipulation).

Meanwhile, on August 27, 2025, the Adelanto Immigration Court held a bond hearing at the request of DHS. That same day, after argument by the parties, Immigration Judge Katie G. Mullins determined that the DHS met its burden of proof such that Petitioner's bond should be revoked. On August 29, 2025, Immigration Judge Mullins issues a 10-page bond memorandum

5 In light of the changed circumstances, the parties jointly move that the Court to lift the 6 stay of proceedings. Further, the parties stipulate to the following briefing schedule on the 7 parties' respective forthcoming motions.
